ACADEMIC COURSE LOAD POLICY

A typical full-time load is 30 credit hours for the academic year. This, in conjunction with the Four-Year Graduation Guarantee (https://www.walsh.edu/guarantee.html), ensures timely progress towards degree completion Students are classified as full-time if they register for 12 credit hours or more in a given semester. No student is permitted to enroll for more than 19 semester hours without permission of the student's faculty advisor.[1] See Registration Procedures (http://catalog.walsh.edu/undergraduate/academic-policies-procedures/registration-procedures/) for information on submitting a request to override the credit hour maximum.

1. Additional fees per credit hour will be incurred for any credit hours over blocked tuition (12-18 credit hours)
